

Why should people who subscribe and pay for a service have that service limited because it takes the profit away from someone else. NAB's petition 04-160 should be rejected because information such as traffic and weather are not trademarked or copyrighted and should be available to anyone on any format.